

Cody & Jess

We thank you from the bottom of our hearts for considering us in your adoption plan. If you choose us, we are ready to give your child a safe and secure home, full of happiness, joy, laughter, fun, warmth and, most importantly, unconditional love.

Every story to parenthood will be different, and ours very different than yours. What we want you to know is that we're here to support you in your decisions however you see fit. We are known amongst our friends and family as confidants, helpers, healers, and people that can listen. We have our problems, sad problems like being unable to start a family naturally. You have your struggles, and we respect and admire your bravery in coping with them. We're here to listen and help and ultimately give a child a family and loving home.

"We are so excited and grateful to be able to share our love with a child."

About Us

“We love nature and we can't wait to create new adventures with our children!”

We have been married for 7 years and together for 10 years before that. We met in college in Texas and have been together ever since! Our love of adventure, exploring new places, family and shared values have kept us together through thick and thin. We are able to pick each other up and focus on all the love in our life.

Why Adoption

We started trying to grow our family 6 years ago. When we started, we never imagined how difficult it could be naturally. After several failed fertility treatments, we knew our path to becoming a mom and dad would be different. As soon as we opened our hearts to adoption we knew that was the right choice for us.

About Cody By Jess

Cody is a man that makes me a better person. He is encouraging, supportive and always believes in me. He supports me in achieving my personal and professional dreams. He can remember anything, work the Sunday crossword puzzle and operate a plane! Most importantly, he takes care of me and is committed to our lives together. As a father, Cody will be consistent, fair and stable. He will be a dedicated father as he is a dedicated husband.

About Jess By Cody

Jess is caring and understanding and is a dedicated listener. I love her sense of humor. Jess makes any situation fun and we are always laughing together. Jessica exemplifies motherhood in both her personal and professional life. She is a favorite Aunt to several nieces and nephews and always has the ability to make children laugh and shine! She is nurturing, loving and warm and kids can feel that they always gravitate towards her. She will truly bloom when she is holding the child meant for us in her arms!

Our Home & Community

We own our home, which is a comfortable 3 bedroom, 2 bath house in a smaller town North of Los Angeles, California. Our home has a large backyard perfect for playing. Our community is a great place to raise a family, with lots of parks, bike trails and fun activities for kids. We are surrounded by mountains and the beach is a short drive away. There will be no shortage of fun things to do! Our child will get to grow up in a gorgeous, friendly town where kids ride bikes and play in our family friendly neighborhood.
