

Greg AND Jess

*T*hank you for considering us in your adoption plan. We would love to get to know you and want you to know that we realize that adoption is an absolutely selfless act on your part and it is something that we respect and admire tremendously.

We have a lot of love to give. We can't wait to add a child to our lives we can care for, guide, teach and maybe spoil just a little bit.

ABOUT US

In Jess's words... We actually met when Greg stayed at the hotel I was working at in California. After dating a few months, I went to visit my family and was surprised when he flew 14 hours/6,759 miles to come see me in New Zealand. We had an amazing time together and it was at this point when we both realized that we wanted to be together forever. We were married in 2016. I am so excited to have Greg and Greg's children, Tiffany, Sydney and Jake, in my life. We all cannot wait to add a baby to the family through adoption!

Community and Home

We live in a suburb of Phoenix, Arizona. Our neighborhood is safe, family-friendly and we have many parks nearby. We have a lovely backyard with a pool (with waterfall and slide) and a large lawn – for kids to run and play. Our home is spacious and we have a nursery ready for a baby.

ABOUT GREG by Jess

Greg's big heart is what I love most about him. He is unbelievably kind, intelligent and caring and will help anyone, anytime! Greg always gives his best at everything he does. Greg's big smile and hearty laugh are infectious. He is very involved in his children's lives and he makes a point to spend quality time with each of them.

ABOUT JESS by Greg

Jess is kind, loving and the most thoughtful person I've ever met. She greets you with a big smile and a beautiful South African accent. She will always offer to help with any task at hand no matter what it is. She loves family and is very close to her parents, a testament to how great adoption can be, as she was adopted at birth.

Why Adoption Both Jessica and her brother were adopted as infants. Both she and Greg considered adoption separately and when they discussed how they would grow their family, they easily decided adoption was the perfect path. Both Jessica and Greg know first hand that being a mom and dad is not always about DNA but it is completely about love. We really feel like adoption is just a way to have more loving people in a child's life.
