hello

Trick or Treat - Halloween fun.

Puppy cuddles at a dog sled camp in Alaska.

Hiking in Iceland.

Tinkerbell! My favorite Disney Princess.

it's an honor to meet you

Thank you for taking the time to learn a little about me and for considering me to raise your child. Through this book, I hope you get a feel for my warm and loving nature, and feel assured that my home will be full of laughter, patience, support, and most importantly, unconditional love for them and for you. I hope that you feel supported and loved on your journey.

Adoption is an incredible exchange of trust and I will always hold this in my heart. No matter what type of adoption you desire - open, semi-open, or closed, you will always be an integral part of their life. I want your child to grow up knowing their story, where they came from and having an understanding and appreciation for you and the choice you are making for them.

If chosen, your child will be loved beyond words and I will devote my life to providing them with all the love, security, and joy I can offer. Thank you again for considering me. From the bottom of my heart, I wish you all the strength and courage to make the choice for your child that feels best.

about me

For me, life is about experiences, not possessions. Every time I go somewhere or do something new I learn about the world, people and myself.

I've been to 21 countries (and counting!) and even spent 2 years teaching at an international school in Madrid, Spain.

Traveling, music, and sports are a big part of my life but I also love having downtime to read, do yard work, and relax at home.

I've had many incredible experiences and am looking forward to sharing new experiences with a child, watching how they learn and grow along the way.

OCCUPATION:
Science Teacher

FAVORITE MOVIE:
Top Gun

FAVORITE PLACE:
The beach

CAN'T LIVE WITHOUT:
My camera. I love taking photos!

FAVORITE TRADITION:
Every Christmas, my mom gives us a new ornament for our tree. It always represents a special memory from the year. I have one for every year since I was born.

Hiking to the Fairy Pools on the Isle of Skye, Scotland.

Getting ready to run with the bulls in Pamplona, Spain.

Paddleboarding on a Saturday morning in Half Moon Bay, CA

Just had to put my feet into the Arctic Ocean - brrrrr!

my family

When you talk about crazy, unconditional love and support, my family is just that. My parents have been married for 51 years and I have two younger brothers, a sister-in-law, and the most adorable nephew. We all live within 30 minutes of my parents house, meaning we spend a lot of time together - from birthdays and holidays to Sunday dinner and even vacations.. We are always there for each other and they cannot wait to add another child to love on.

Mother/Daughter Day at the game - Go A's!

Reading my nephew his favorite book - Rainbow Fish

With my dad, cheering on the Buckeyes!

The family celebrating my nephew's 1st birthday.

A girl and her brothers - best friends forever.

A day at the park with my nephew.

My parents have hats picked out for my nephew and grandbaby #2.

Birthday dinner on the beach with friends and family.

A day in San Francisco with my BFF

Moonlight kayaking

Star Wars Land at Disneyland

NKOTB concert - our annual tradition!

Geeking out at the Academy of Science

Tailgating with friends before the Broncos/Raiders game.

Hiking with friends

In addition to my family, I have a fantastic and diverse group of friends. They have been with me during all the bends in the road and can't wait to be part of my "village" in raising a child.

my friends

my home

I live in a small town in the San Francisco Area, California, perfectly nestled between the ocean and mountains. My home has three bedrooms, two bathrooms, and a backyard that is a child's dream! There's plenty of space to kick a ball, play a game of tag or have an overnight backyard camping experience.

The neighborhood is extremely diverse and family-friendly. There's beautiful park with a playground, a weekly farmers market, an indoor waterpark, and a downtown street with shops and restaurants, all within walking distance. The neighbors on my street throw a 4th of July Block Party (with fireworks!) and Halloween party every year.

why adoption?

I was in a long-term relationship for many years. When we decided to start a family, I learned I wasn't able to have a child biologically. I still, without a doubt, wanted a child and to explore our options. He did not. So, I started on my own journey to adopt as a single parent. While we are no longer together, we remain close friends and he is super supportive of my decision to adopt. I am so excited to proceed with my dream and can't wait to start a family.

my promise

- To provide a safe, happy home filled with love and laughter
- To love them unconditionally
- To speak of you with respect, adoration, and gratitude
- To encourage them to try new things and explore new places
- To support your child as they pursue their dreams

Thank you

I truly appreciate you taking the time to learn about me. I'd love to learn about you as well because this is our story. I promise your child will be showered with unconditional love and raised in a happy, healthy home full of laughter and adventure. I wish you the best in your search but secretly hope your search has ended now that you've "met" me!
