our story

We met at an outdoor restaurant in Florida, both dancing to Rihanna; we both say we were the one to approach the other first. Jeff was finishing the fourth year of his Doctorate of Veterinary Medicine, and David had his own digital video production company. Jeff fell in love with David's infectious laugh and spirit, where David says it was Jeff's sense of humor and intelligence that drew him in. We bought a house and moved to California a year later.

Jeff practices mostly emergency medicine with dogs and cats, and David creates videos and online content for makeup and beauty brands. We enjoy working out at our CrossFit gym, hiking, taking our dogs to the park, and going to the beach. Our interests include traveling, photography, theater/arts, volleyball, and softball. We pride ourselves on being an active, outdoorsy, and adventurous family with a wide range of interests.

"Love knows no boundaries, and in the embrace of two souls, a family is born. Together, they defy stereotypes and build a future filled with love, acceptance, and the joy of creating a family that knows no limits."

about jeff

BY DAVID

Jeff is an incredible person. He is not only smart and educated, but also outgoing and funny; always bringing laughter and joy into our lives. His favorite part of being a veterinarian is not only his love of animals, but performing surgery, which always blows my mind! Jeff has had some amazing experiences in his life from living abroad in the Caribbean, to working as an extra on a Jonny Depp film in a bank robbery scene. He cannot wait to have more experiences and create memories with a child by our side. I love that he is protective and always looks out for our family's well-being. He works tirelessly to provide for us, ensuring that we have everything we need. I am grateful every day to have such an amazing partner by my side.

BY JEFF

David is an amazing person! He is loving, caring, thoughtful, and hilarious, making every day interesting and fun. He loves listening to 90s Mariah Carey songs while he cleans, making Saturday morning chores fun. I have never met anyone who takes care of his family the way David does. He has a knack for making everyone laugh and ensuring that everyone's needs are met. His passion for cooking and entertaining brings joy to those around him, and his skills as a photographer and videographer capture beautiful memories. He is always making traditional Puerto Rican dishes and tries a lot of new and different recipes. With his love and dedication, I have no doubt that he will create a wonderful childhood for our kids, filled with laughter, delicious food, and cherished moments.
