DEAR FRIEND

We want to start this letter by expressing our utmost admiration and respect for you. We want to acknowledge the weight of the decision you are facing and the emotions that come with it. We understand that choosing the best path for your baby's future requires immense strength and courage. Our hearts go out to you during this challenging time, and we want you to know we care for and respect you.

If you choose us to be the parents of your child, know that they will always know love and be cared for in the best ways possible. We are committed to providing your baby with a loving and secure home surrounded by unconditional love and unwavering support. Our extended families and friends, who are an integral part of our lives, will be there to offer their love, their guidance, and the richness of family traditions. Our home is a loving, caring, safe, and positive environment. Education is a priority, and imagination, expression, and connection are valued. As a family, we hope to grow together in all aspects of life. We hope to raise children who can be strong and independent in their own right.

If you choose us, we promise your child every opportunity for unconditional love, happiness, and all the tools to grow. Our hearts are filled with empathy and compassion for the path you are navigating. We are and will remain forever grateful for your consideration of us adopting your baby.

With Love,

Nelson & Daniel

OUR STORY

“Being a family means you are a part of something very wonderful. It means you will love and be loved for the rest of your life.”

We fell in love seven years ago when we were both living in Puerto Rico and now have been married 5 years. Our biggest priority has always been family. Nelson works for an airline company as a general manager, and Daniel leads the morning shift at the company where he works. Our love story started when we were approximately 15 years old, but due to the fact that we lived in different towns, we lost communication. Each of us continued our separate paths until eight years later, when Nelson contacted Daniel through Facebook, and we rediscovered the bond that had united us since we were 15 years old. After that first contact, the conversations lasted for hours, the details became clear, and the activities with family and friends became much closer. Then, in 2016, we became engaged. From there, our relationship grew more and more. Having grown up in Puerto Rico, Spanish is both of our first languages, but we both also speak English conversationally. We are excited to bring a child into our loving home and hearts!

ABOUT NELSON

by Daniel

After reconnecting with Nelson, I quickly knew that I wanted to spend my life with him. Nelson is an amazing husband. He is always looking for the best of our marriage. Nelson is always thinking forward and tries to lay out a path for our family and works towards increasing success for our future children! Also, Nelson is amazing in the kitchen - he loves to bake and make food. Nelson has a gentle spirit and a way of making everyone he meets feel special, loved, and heard, while always offering a shoulder to cry on. I feel incredibly blessed to have him by my side and so lucky to call him my husband.

ABOUT DANIEL

by Nelson

Daniel is a fantastic person. He always has a smile on his face, trying to make me happy. I love how Daniel is always planning ahead, trying to grow and achieve more, and always calm no matter how intense a situation is. Daniel tries to take control and manage hard things! Also, he is the type of guy that will stop what he is doing to help anyone – a friend, a family member, co-worker, and even a stranger! He is so loving, kind, generous and hardworking. He is my constant pillar of support, always attending to whatever I may need in the most gentle, caring way.

OUR HOME AND COMMUNITY

When we first saw our home, we knew it was meant for us because we both felt the peace, tranquility, and happiness it gave us. At that moment, we knew this was the house of our dreams. Our home is in Pennsylvania, in the middle of nature with a view of a lake. It is a beautiful piece of land where our future children can grow, run, and enjoy the wonders of life. We love our house, and every day we work hard to maintain its essence and the warmth it transmits to us and those around us.

OUR DOG

Our dog, Zeus, came to us when he was just weeks old. Zeus loves to play and run, but most importantly, he loves children. He is a schnauzer, and we love everything about him.

OUR EXTENDED FAMILY AND FRIENDS

Our families are very special to us, and they are one of those that every couple would like to have. Our families are our base, our support, and above all, our example to follow day after day. Most of our extended family lives in Puerto Rico, but we see them often when we travel there and when they visit us! Our families have a motto in their marriages that we always need to have communication no matter what. Our families have beautiful marriages in which every day we see ourselves reflected in them, and it is what drives us to want our family to continue growing. They are our fathers and mothers, brothers, friends, and, above all, our greatest love. That is what we want for our baby so that he can see that family is one of the most important things in life.

We have a good mix of friends who have multiple children of varying ages, and we enjoy often celebrating special occasions together or spending time. Our friends support us and always looking for the best of us. We are so fortunate to have such a wonderful, strong bond with our friends and their families.

WHY WE ARE CHOOSING ADOPTION

Ever since we met, we knew we wanted a family. Adoption has always been our first choice, and creating a family is so important to us. We are fortunate to have family and friends who have gone through the adoption process, and we have seen firsthand the incredible bond that can be formed. Their experiences have inspired us and shown us the immense joy and fulfillment that come with welcoming a child into a home. We think adoption is the best way to grow our family, and we are very excited about the possibility of adopting and adding to our family.

We promise

- To always support your child, and help them grow to their full potential.
- Your child will grow up happy, healthy, and safe.
- To provide them with opportunities to grow into who they want to be.
- To explore the world together, learning about different places and cultures.
- To always put family first and teach kindness and respect for everyone.

FUN FACTS

- Christmas time is our favorite. We have a family tradition, but our favorite is buying matching holiday pjs.
- We go on a minimum of two vacations each year. When we travel we like to send our family members a postcard from where we are.
- We both love music and enjoy watching live shows.
- We love to marathon a good series on Netflix!
- We love home improvement projects.
- We like to make dinner at home and invite our close friends and later watch movies.
- We are both from Puerto Rico and Spanish is our first language, although we both speak English conversationally

THANK YOU

From the bottom of our hearts, we want to express our deepest gratitude for considering us in your journey. Thank you for taking the time to get to know more about us! We hope this has helped you get to know us. We understand that this is a difficult decision for you, and we are truly honored that you are considering us to be the parents of your child. Please know that if you choose us to love your child, we will do everything we can to make your child's life the best one possible. Thank you for considering us in this incredible opportunity to become parents.
