

Hannah AND Lee

Hello Friend!

We can't say we know what you're going through, but we can say that we have a special place in our hearts for you. We are so humbled that you would consider adoption. It is one of the hardest and most selfless things a parent can do. We respect whatever decision you make. We'd love to have an ongoing relationship with you. Our relationship with the Lord is deeply important to us, and we've been praying for you and baby already, even though we don't know you yet. Most importantly, know that you and your baby are loved beyond measure. Thank you for considering us for this part of your journey. We already feel an immense love for you.

Our STORY

written by Lee

Hanna and I met in college through some friends. I liked her right away, but I didn't think I had a chance. The first night we met, she cooked a meal for our study group, which felt like home to me. Hanna and I started spending more time together, and the attraction really grew one night when a group of us went out together. I was so excited when Hanna decided to join us! Hanna and I talked and laughed all night. It felt like we had been friends for years. From the beginning, I knew Hanna was the one. I even told her roommate that if I had a chance, I'd marry her. We dated for the rest of our college years, and on Christmas Day 2014, I proposed. She later told me that she was so excited that she almost forgot to say yes, but luckily, she did, and we got married on April 9, 2016. We have been building a beautiful life together since.

Hanna is truly beautiful inside and out. Her pure heart is evident by the way she is so giving and puts others before herself. She is an amazing aunt, sister, and friend and I know she will be an even better mother. Her strong sense of faith, thoughtfulness, bouncing personality, sense of humor, and loving heart make her so special to everyone whose life she touches. HOME SWEET LOUISIANA

Our home is 3 bedrooms & 2 bathrooms. We love the area because we're close to Hanna's parents and close to town all while not being too far away from open land to play outside.

Our plans are to build a custom home (in the same neighborhood) within the next year.

Ellie is our 5-year-old toy poodle. She's fantastic with kids, incredibly friendly, and always up for a snuggle. One of her favorite activities is visiting Petco to pick out new treats and toys. Ellie is a bundle of love and sweetness.

I come from a great family that really supports each other. I have a fantastic sister. She and her husband have blessed us with three awesome nephews. Our families are super excited about a new family member, especially our nephews—they can't wait to play with him/her.

WHY adoption

In October 2014, I started following a new blogger. She already had two biological kids but was adopting a child. This made me see adoption in a new way, as a beautiful, intentional choice.

As I learned more about her story, I wanted to adopt too. From then on, we knew we would adopt, but we didn't know when. We wondered if we should try for biological kids first or start the adoption process. We prayed for answers and realized adoption was our path when we were unable to conceive naturally. Adoption has changed how we see family, and we are excited to grow our family with love and purpose through adoption.
